

RICHARD GRAY GALLERY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Richard Gray Gallery at Art Basel Miami Beach 2018

Richard Gray Gallery is pleased to announce participation in Art Basel Miami Beach 2018. The gallery will be showing major works from the gallery's program of artists such as Jim Dine, Theaster Gates, David Hockney, Alex Katz, Jaume Plensa and Leon Polk Smith.

The gallery is also pleased to announce its participation in the Art Kabinett sector of Art Basel, featuring "A Tribute to Richard Gray," an exhibition of postwar masterworks on paper from the private collection of the gallery's founder who passed away earlier this year. Included are exceptional examples by Willem de Kooning, Jean Dubuffet, Franz Kline, Jackson Pollock, Sam Francis, Richard Diebenkorn, and Pablo Picasso, rarely seen by the public.

Founding his gallery in 1963, and exhibiting at Art Basel since 1992, Richard Gray played a vital role in advising some of the most notable private collectors for over half a century. The works presented highlight the revered art dealer and collector's personal passion for art. Together with his wife, Mary Gray, the two amassed an esteemed collection of drawings, paintings, and objects from antiquity to the present, with an emphasis on original works on paper. The gallery takes this occasion to reflect on Gray's legacy and more publicly share his contribution to art dealing and connoisseurship.
